Main ESL Lesson Activities

Vocabulary Activity: Pronoun Fill-in-the-Blanks

Divide the class into pairs and provide each pair with a list of sentences with missing pronouns. Students should work together to identify and fill in the correct personal pronouns in the blanks. Encourage them to discuss and explain their choices to each other, reinforcing understanding through peer interaction.

Listening Activity: Pronoun Identification Game

Prepare a set of audio clips or spoken sentences that contain different personal pronouns. Play the recordings for the students and have them write down which personal pronoun they hear in each sentence. Then, facilitate a group discussion where students share their answers and explain their reasoning.

Roleplay Activity: Pronoun Conversation Cards

Create sets of conversation cards, each containing short dialogue exchanges between two or more people. Assign these cards to pairs or small groups of students who will then act out the dialogues, paying particular attention to using the correct personal pronouns based on context.

Reading and Writing Activity: Personal Pronoun Story Creation

In this activity, ask students to write short stories while focusing on using a variety of personal pronouns correctly throughout their narratives. After writing, students can exchange stories with a partner for peer review, discussing any potential errors and how they can be improved for clarity.

ESL Homework Assignment

For homework, students will be tasked with creating a short dialogue or narrative that incorporates various personal pronouns appropriately. This assignment will allow them to reinforce their understanding of personal pronouns in practical contexts and provide an opportunity for independent practice outside the classroom.
