ESL Warm-up Activity

To kick off the Sula ESL Lesson Plan, start with a role-playing activity where students are divided into pairs. Each pair is given a scenario related to friendships and relationships. For example, one scenario could involve a disagreement between friends, and the students must act out how they would resolve the conflict using appropriate vocabulary covered in the lesson plan. This activity not only captures students' attention but also sets the tone for active participation and encourages them to use new vocabulary in conversational contexts.

Main ESL Lesson Activities

Vocabulary Activity: Word Association

Divide the class into small groups and provide each group with a set of vocabulary cards related to friendships and relationships. Instruct the students to take turns picking a card and saying a word associated with the one on their card. This encourages students to recall and use the newly learned vocabulary in a creative manner.

Listening Activity: Short Clips Discussion

Play short video or audio clips depicting various friendship scenarios. Then, facilitate a class discussion where students share their thoughts on how they would react in similar situations, using the vocabulary from the lesson.

Roleplay: Friendship Scenarios

Pair up students and assign them different friendship scenarios (e.g., disagreement, supporting each other) relevant to the lesson's theme. They will then act out these scenarios using appropriate language elements studied during the lesson.

Reading and Writing: Friendship Story Creation

Provide students with story prompts related to friendships or relationships. In groups, encourage them to collaborate on creating short stories using as many new vocabulary words as possible. Afterward, allow each group to share their stories with the class for further discussion and feedback.

ESL Homework Assignment

Homework Assignment: Friendship Reflection

Ask students to reflect on a personal experience related to friendship or any relationship. They should write a short paragraph using the vocabulary learned in the lesson, describing their experience and how they dealt with any challenges.

Additional Task: Vocabulary Review

Provide a list of vocabulary from the lesson and ask students to create sentences using each word. This not only reinforces their understanding of the words but also encourages independent language production.

This homework assignment is designed to solidify the lesson content while allowing students to apply what they have learned in real-world scenarios, fostering a deeper understanding of the topic.
