ESL Warm-up Activity

To start the lesson off with excitement, begin by playing a game of \"Sharing Stories.\" In this activity, each student shares a short, imaginative story involving sharing or dividing items with others. Encourage the use of vocabulary related to sharing and division that will be covered in the lesson. This helps set a fun and interactive tone for the class while incorporating language elements relevant to \"The Doorbell Rang\" ESL Lesson Plan.

Main ESL Lesson Activities

Vocabulary Activity: Word Share

To reinforce vocabulary, have students work in pairs. Each pair is given a set of vocabulary cards related to sharing and division. One student describes the word on the card without saying it, while the other guesses the word. This activity encourages active use of vocabulary and provides an opportunity for peer learning.

Listening Activity: Story Retelling

After reading \"The Doorbell Rang\" as a class, divide students into small groups. Each group selects a section of the story to retell using their own words, emphasizing key details and concepts. This promotes comprehension and speaking skills while encouraging collaborative discussions.

Roleplay Activity: Sharing Scenarios

In this activity, students act out various sharing scenarios based on real-life situations. For example, sharing snacks with friends or dividing toys equally among siblings. This hands-on exercise fosters creativity and understanding of social interactions while reinforcing the lesson's theme.

Reading and Writing: Divide & Conquer

Provide students with different scenarios where they need to divide items equally among friends or family members. Students write short paragraphs explaining how they would handle each situation, using appropriate vocabulary learned from the lesson. This task enhances critical thinking and language production skills.

ESL Homework Assignment

For homework, students are encouraged to create a short story or drawing that showcases the concept of sharing and division. They can use their imagination to depict scenarios where characters must share or divide items equally. This task reinforces the lesson content while providing an opportunity for creative expression and language practice.
