Create a makeshift red carpet using a long red cloth or paper, and play some glamorous music in the background. As each student enters the "red carpet," encourage them to strike a pose and introduce themselves as if they were a celebrity attending the Oscars. This activity not only sets the tone for the lesson but also incorporates language elements related to the Oscars, such as introducing oneself in a formal and glamorous manner. It's a fun way to capture students' attention and get them excited about the lesson ahead.

Main ESL Lesson Activities

Vocabulary Activity: "Award Categories"

To reinforce vocabulary related to the Oscars, create a matching game where students match award categories (e.g., Best Actor, Best Director) with their definitions. Divide the class into small groups and provide each group with a set of category cards and definition cards. Encourage students to discuss and collaborate to correctly match the categories with their definitions. This activity promotes group discussions and enhances vocabulary retention.

Listening Activity: "Acceptance Speech Analysis"

Play a recorded acceptance speech from a past Oscars ceremony for the class. Provide students with a transcript of the speech and ask them to listen carefully while following along with the transcript. Afterward, facilitate a discussion about the key points in the speech, encouraging students to share their thoughts on the speaker's tone, language use, and expressions. This activity improves listening skills and encourages critical thinking.

Roleplay Activity: "Red Carpet Interviews"

Organize a roleplay activity where students take on the roles of celebrities attending an Oscars event. Some students can act as reporters conducting red carpet interviews, while others portray famous actors or actresses. This interactive roleplay encourages students to use language elements relevant to formal interviews and public speaking, fostering confidence in spoken English.

Reading and Writing Activity: "Film Review Writing"

Assign each student a different Oscar-winning film to research and write a short review about. Encourage them to include details about the plot, acting performances, and overall impression of the film. After completing their reviews, facilitate a peer review session where students exchange their written work for feedback. This activity enhances reading comprehension and writing skills while promoting peer collaboration.

ESL Homework Assignment

For homework, students are tasked with watching a recent or past Oscars ceremony and writing a short reflection on their favorite part of the event. They should focus on the language used in acceptance speeches, interviews, and presentations. Additionally, students are encouraged to look up the winners of specific categories and write a brief summary of the films that won. This assignment reinforces the lesson content by providing real-world exposure to the language and concepts discussed in class.
