ESL Warm-up Activity

To kick off the Kim ESL Lesson Plan, start with a fun activity called "Family Charades." Write down the names of different family members on small pieces of paper and put them in a hat. Ask students to take turns picking a piece of paper and acting out the family member without speaking while the rest of the class guesses who it is. This activity not only incorporates vocabulary related to family members but also encourages students to use non-verbal communication, setting an engaging tone for the lesson.

Main ESL Lesson Activities

Vocabulary Activity: Family Tree

Divide the class into small groups and provide each group with a large sheet of paper and markers. Instruct them to draw a family tree, labeling each family member in English. Encourage students to discuss their own families while working on the activity, promoting vocabulary retention and group discussions.

Listening Exercise: Family Interviews

Pair up the students and have them interview each other about their families and daily routines. Provide a list of questions related to the topic for guidance. After the interviews, ask each pair to share interesting information they learned about their partner's family with the class, fostering listening skills and promoting pair work.

Roleplay: Family Dinner Conversation

Assign different roles to students, such as mother, father, sibling, etc., and provide them with a scenario for a family dinner conversation. Encourage them to act out the roles and engage in a conversation using the vocabulary and expressions learned in the lesson. This activity promotes speaking skills through roleplay and encourages creativity.

Reading and Writing: Daily Routine Diary

Ask students to write a diary entry describing their typical daily routine using the vocabulary from the lesson. Encourage them to include details about family members' activities as well. After writing, allow students to share their diary entries with a partner or in small groups, promoting reading, writing, and peer interaction.

ESL Homework Assignment

For homework, students are tasked with creating a family tree of their own family, including the names of family members and their relationships. Additionally, they should write a short paragraph describing their daily routine and the activities of their family members. This assignment reinforces the vocabulary and concepts covered in the lesson while encouraging students to apply what they have learned to their personal lives.
