ESL Warm-up Activity

To kick off the lesson, start with a fun and interactive activity. Begin by showing images of a pond, fishing rod, waterlily, and other key elements from the story. Ask the students to describe what they see and encourage them to use descriptive adjectives to express their thoughts. Then, introduce a short role-play activity where students can take on the roles of different characters from the story and act out a scene at the pond. This will not only capture their attention but also set the tone for an immersive learning experience centered around The Tale of Mr. Jeremy Fisher.

Main ESL Lesson Activities

Vocabulary Activity: Pond Exploration

Begin by introducing the key vocabulary words related to the story, such as "pond," "fishing rod," "polliwog," and "waterlily." Then, organize a nature walk or outdoor activity where students can explore a nearby pond or water feature. Encourage them to identify and label objects they encounter using the newly learned vocabulary. This hands-on exercise will reinforce their understanding of the story's setting and vocabulary while providing an engaging learning experience.

Listening Exercise: Story Retelling

Play an audio recording of The Tale of Mr. Jeremy Fisher or read it aloud to the class. Afterward, divide the students into pairs and have them take turns retelling the story to each other. This activity not only enhances listening skills but also encourages comprehension and speaking practice in a collaborative setting.

Roleplay: Character Interaction

Assign each student a character from the story and have them engage in a roleplay activity where they interact with one another as if they were in the narrative. This immersive exercise allows students to embody the characters, practice dialogue, and understand different perspectives within the story.

Reading and Writing: Letter Writing

Task students with writing a letter from Mr. Jeremy Fisher to another character in the story, expressing his thoughts and feelings about an event that occurred. Encourage creativity and critical thinking as they delve into the character's emotions and motivations, reinforcing reading comprehension and writing skills simultaneously.

ESL Homework Assignment

For homework, students are tasked with creating a storyboard or comic strip depicting a scene from The Tale of Mr. Jeremy Fisher. They should incorporate dialogue and narration, using the vocabulary and expressions learned in class. This assignment reinforces their understanding of the story while encouraging creativity and language application outside the classroom. Additionally, students can write a short reflection on the character they portrayed during the roleplay activity, sharing their insights and experiences from embodying that character.
